FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steven Pjesky
DOCKET NO.: 09-27769.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-07-300-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Steven Pjesky, the appellant, by attorney Thomas J. Thorson, of Raila & Associates, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$34,503
IMPR.:	$81,854
TOTAL:	$116,357

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 4,307 square feet of living area. The dwelling was 47 years old. Features of the home include a full basement with a finished recreation room, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a two-car attached garage. The property has a 37,301 square foot site and is located in Hinsdale, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $146,485. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $111,982 or $26.00 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the four comparables submitted by the appellant. These comparables ranged in size from 3,945 to 4,591 square feet of living area and ranged in age from 42 to 50 years old. The comparables were also similar to the subject in location, exterior construction, design and features. Due to their similarities to the subject property, the appellant's comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $17.68 to $20.27 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $26.00 per square foot of living area is above the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board gave little weight to the four properties submitted by the board of review due primarily to their significant size differences when compared to the subject's living area. The board of review comparables ranged in size from 2,086 to 2,374 square feet of living, considerably smaller than the subject property. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant demonstrated with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed. Thus, the Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
