FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: S. K. Crown
DOCKET NO.: 09-32275.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-17-202-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are S. K. Crown, the appellant, by attorney Sonja R. Johnson, of Much Shelist in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$56,626
IMPR.:	$156,247
TOTAL:	$212,873

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 6,823 square feet of living area. The dwelling 59 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and a 2.5-car garage. The property has a 36,533 square foot site and is located in Winnetka, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-09 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $274,045. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $217,419 or $31.87 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The parties to the appeal submitted eight comparable properties into the record for the Board's consideration. The Board finds that only appellant's comparables #2 and #3 and board of review comparables #1 and #3 are similar to the subject property in size of living area. However, the board of review comparables are significantly newer than the subject property and would require adjustments for age. The Board finds appellant's comparables #2 and #3, although older, are most similar to the subject in age. These comparables had improvement assessments of $20.70 and $22.03 per square foot of living area respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $31.87 per square foot of living area is above the assessments of the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments and differences in age and features of both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's per square foot assessment is inequitable and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
