FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Evan Carangan
DOCKET NO.: 07-21845.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-15-208-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Evan Carangan, the appellant(s), by attorney Julie Realmuto, of McCarthy Duffy of Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$ 2,727
IMPR.:	$ 23,382
TOTAL:	$ 26,109

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story row house or townhouse of frame and masonry construction containing 1550 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 44 years old.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted basic assessment information on seven properties but provided sufficiently detailed property characteristics information on only four comparable properties. They were described as two-story masonry or frame and masonry dwellings that are 36 or 44 years old. The comparable dwellings range in size from 1569 to 1800 square feet of living area. One has a partial basement, and one has a full, unfinished basement. All have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $9.08 to $10.60 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $15.09 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties located on the same block as the subject and essentially identical to it in every property characteristic. These properties have improvement assessments of $15.09 per square foot of living area, the same as the subject. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds the comparables submitted by both parties were similar to the subject in most property characteristics except for the appellant's comparable #4, which was of a different exterior construction and was substantially larger than the subject. The seven comparables most similar to the subject had improvement assessments that ranged from $9.08 to $15.09 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $15.09 per square foot of living area is within the range established by the comparables and is the same as the four board of review comparables located on the same block as the subject and essentially identical to it. The Board also notes that the appellant's comparables have much larger land assessments than the subject and their total assessments are similar to the subject's total assessment. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
