FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Betty Jaacks
DOCKET NO.: 10-23360.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-22-205-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Betty Jaacks, the appellant, by attorney Julie Realmuto of McCarthy Duffy in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$ 8,910
IMPR.:	$ 29,426
TOTAL:	$ 38,336

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,873 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 55 years old. Features of the home include a slab foundation, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a two-car attached garage. The property has a 13,200 square foot site and is located in Park Ridge, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $38,336. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,426 or $15.71 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the parties submitted eight comparables that were relatively similar to the subject in style and age but larger than the subject dwelling. The appellant's comparables were inferior to the subject in that none had central air conditioning and two had no fireplaces as does the subject property. The comparables provided by the board of review were superior to the subject in that each had a partial unfinished basement. However two were inferior having no central air conditioning, three had only one fireplace, one had no fireplace and one had a one-car garage. These eight comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14.55 to $17.15 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $15.71 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the comparables in this record and is justified considering the differences between the subject property and the comparable dwellings. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
