FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Barbara Green
DOCKET NO.: 07-22691.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-12-210-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Barbara Green, the appellant, by attorney Timothy C. Jacobs of Gary H. Smith PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$ 26,037
IMPR.:	$ 41,733
TOTAL:	$ 67,770

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 2,895 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 51 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car attached garage. The dwelling is located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal report in which a market value of $675,000 was estimated for the subject property as of January 1, 2007. The appraiser developed the sales comparison approach in order to estimate the market value of the subject property. The appraiser considered three comparable properties that sold in September 2006 or June 2007 for prices of either $614,250 or $650,000. The comparable properties are improved with one-story masonry or frame and masonry dwellings that are either 49 or 50 years old and range in size from 2,101 to 3,112 square feet of living area. After identifying differences between the comparable properties and the subject, the appraiser made adjustments to the sale prices. As a result, the adjusted sale prices of the comparable properties ranged from $617,250 to $690,500. In the brief, the appellant's counsel requested that the three-year median level of assessments on class 2 property of 10.04% in Cook County be applied to the appraiser's finding of market value and that the subject's total assessment be reduced to $67,500.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $80,893 was disclosed. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $805,707 or $278.31 per square foot of living area,[1] land included, using the 2007 three-year median level of assessments for Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance Class 2 property of 10.04% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.59(c)(2)).

The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of one-story frame and masonry dwellings that range in age from 46 to 52 years old. The dwellings range in size from 2,453 to 3,064 square feet of living area, and they have improvement assessments ranging from $19.54 to $19.83 per square foot of living area. As part of its evidence, the board of review also disclosed that comparable four sold in August 2005 for $778,750 or for $288.64 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Board finds it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale of the subject property or comparable sales. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c)). After an analysis of the evidence in the record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the appellant's appraisal report is the best evidence of the subject's market value as of the January 1, 2007 assessment date. The appraiser estimated a market value of $675,000 for the subject property as of January 1, 2007. The subject’s assessment reflects a market value of $805,707 and is in excess of the market value estimate contained in the appraisal report. The board of review submitted four equity comparables but did not sufficiently refute the overvaluation argument. Although the board of review provided a sale price for one of its equity comparables, this comparable sold in August 2005. The comparable sales utilized in the appraisal sold in September 2006 and June 2007, which was more proximate in time to the assessment date at issue. Based on this record, the Board finds the subject has a market value of $675,000 as of January 1, 2007, and the 2007 three-year median level of assessments for Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance Class 2 property of 10.04% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.59(c)(2)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
