Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$8,580
IMPR.:	$35,828
TOTAL:	$44,408

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a 2-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,974 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 70 years old. Features of the home include a full basement with finished area, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 3,300 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County.

The appellant's appeal is based on assessment equity and contention of law.[1] The appellant submitted information on three comparable properties described as 2-story dwellings of masonry construction that ranged in size from 1,649 to 2,114 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 71 to 81 years. Each comparable has the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables feature full basements, one with finished area, and 1-car garages. One of the comparables features central air conditioning and two have fireplaces. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $28,279 to $37,208 or from $16.76 to $17.60 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $35,828 or $18.15 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $33,894 or $17.17 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on three comparable properties improved with 2-story dwellings of masonry construction that range in size from 1,686 to 2,037 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 65 to 70 years. Each has the same neighborhood code as the subject property. Features of the comparables include full basements, one with finished area, central air conditioning, 1 or 2 fireplaces and 1 or 2-car garages. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $38,024 to $40,021 or from $18.67 to $23.74 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessments by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989); 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.63(e). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds all six comparables submitted by both parties similar to the subject in age, size, style, exterior construction and location. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $16.76 to $23.74 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18.15 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement assessment was inequitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
