Motion to Reinstate

Appellant filed with the PTAB on April 12, 2021. On June 3, 2021, the appeal was returned as incomplete. The Appellant was given a 30-day extension to complete the filing with a due date of July 6, 2021 (7/3/21 was a Saturday & 7/5/21 was a State Holiday). The Appellant did not respond to the incomplete checklist. On August 12, 2021, the PTAB dismissed the appeal, and the file was closed. On August 16, 2021, the Appellant requested that the appeal be reinstated.

The Appellant asserts that on April 11, 2021, it requested an extension to submit evidence in the above matter. On or around June 3, 2021, PTAB granted the extension to July 3, 2021. The Appellant contends that on or around June 23, 2021, it requested an additional extension to submit evidence that was sent via Federal Express. The Appellant enclosed a copy of the extension request dated June 23, 2021, and proof from Federal Express that said the request was sent and received by PTAB. However, the letter dated June 23, 2021, indicates it was sent "VIA US MAIL."

The Appellant contends that since the request to extend the time to submit additional evidence was before the July 3, 2021 deadline and the June 3, 2021 extension was not deemed as a "Final Extension," PTAB should have granted the additional extension. Therefore, the Appellant requests the matter be reinstated.

-September 13, 2021, the Intervenor filed a Request to Rescind the Default.

Counsel for the Intervenor asserts that on Friday, September 10, he began to review his files and noted that he had not received anything from PTAB in this matter. He then went to PTAB's website, where he noted that he had been defaulted. He had not received any notice as to the extension. However, the website claims it was posted on May 13, 2021. He respectfully asks that his client be reinstated and that he be allowed to adopt the evidence of the Dekalb County Board of Review in this matter. (He thought that there was an issue on May 13 when things were not attached, and he had called into the office. IT staff indicates that there was no issue with emails on 5/13, although we had one on 7/29. IT noted that Counsel was sent two files that day (5/13) and did not open them.)

Please note that the BOR has submitted its Notes on Appeal, no additional evidence, and asserts that it is adopting the evidence of the Intervenor (School Dist. #428).

- t. Centennial Village Unit II Townhome Assc: #20-38930-R-1 (Cook - Orland)

Response to Incomplete checklist regarding standing - Petitioner contends it has standing to bring the subject appeal.

The Appellant, a Townhome Association, filed an appeal with the PTAB on June 7, 2021, on 47 PINs (based on the BOR decision). On August 19, 2021, the appeal was returned due to being incomplete, and the Appellant was granted a 30-day extension with a due date of (Saturday) September 18, 2021. The PTAB returned the appeal as incomplete because a Townhome Association has no standing to appeal. Appeals need to be filed in the name of an owner/taxpayer or a taxing district with an interest in the property. Separate appeals must be filed for each individual property. On September 15, 2021, PTAB received correspondence from the Appellant arguing the Townhome Association has standing to bring the Subject Appeal.

The Townhome Association argued that the PTAB's contention that it does not have the standing to pursue the appeal is without merit for the following reasons:

1. The Board issued a decision on May 26, 2020, which granted standing to a townhome association to sue on behalf of individual unit owners. See e.g., Stonecreek Townhome Association vs. Cook County Board of Review, PTAB 16-36976.001-R-1 through 16-36976.013-R-1-2 (attached hereto). Petitioner's fact pattern is similar to that contained in the Board's recent decision, and there is no logical reason why the Board's ruling would not be applied to Petitioner's case.
2. The Petitioner is hereby submitting written authorizing forms from the owners of each individual property contained in this appeal. See attached. These authorization forms expressly authorize the Petitioner, as the authorized agent of each individual unit owner, to bring appeals on each unit owner's behalf. There is no justification for the Board to subvert the unit owner's agency relationship with the Petitioner.
3. The Petitioner is an Illinois not-for-profit corporation. Illinois not-for-profit corporations "have standing to sue when one or more of its members would otherwise have standing to sue in his or her own right." 805 ILCS 105/103.10(b). Here, each of the individual owners is a member of the Petitioner Association and would each have standing to sue on their own behalf. This further supports the ability of the Petitioner's power to sue on behalf of its members.
4. Both the Illinois Common Interest Community Association Act (CICAA) and the Illinois Condominium Property Act (CPA) expressly allow condominium and association boards to sue on behalf of individual unit owners. See 765 ILCS 160/1-30(j), 605/9.1(b). These statutes provide an informative model for the scope of board association powers, including the power to bring suit on behalf of association members. Taken together, these statutes provide persuasive authority that similarly situated townhome associations, such as the Petitioner, should also be allowed to file suit on behalf of their owners.

5. A public policy of judicial economy warrants consolidating the property tax appeals of each individual owner into one appeal. Separating the appeals, especially when each consenting property owner is relying on the same set of facts to contest their valuations, will result in the Board having to consider 48 nearly identical appeals, one at a time, wasting the Board's resources.

For these reasons, the Board should grant the Petitioner standing to bring this property tax appeal on behalf of the individual unit owners that have expressly authorized the Petitioner to represent them.
