Motion to Dismiss Appeals

Appellant claim

Glenwood Resort, Inc. timely filed these commercial appeals from the final decisions of the LaSalle County Board of Review (LCBOR). The appeals are based on a contention of law, and the appellant seeks to have the preferential developer's relief statute applied to these 72 individual parcels (35 ILCS 200/10-30). The appellant reported each parcel's current assessment and requested the assessments be reduced to $260, except for one parcel in which an assessment of $3,415 was requested.

In support of the legal argument, the appellant argues:

1. The parcels are located within an RV community known as "Glenwood RV Camping Resort" and include six platted subdivisions.
2. The first sale was recorded in 1987 by Glenwood RV Resort Operating Partnership.

3. The partnership sold its lots in 1991 to Resort Management, Inc.
4. Resort Management sold its remaining lots to Glenwood Properties, Inc. (GPI) in 1994.
5. Neither the 1991 nor the 1994 sale caused the removal of the property's preferential assessment under Section 10-30.
6. GPI filed for bankruptcy, and the appellant, Glenwood Resort, Inc., purchased the parcels in 2015 from the bankruptcy trustee (Case No. 13-4732, N.D. Illinois).

It is alleged that GPI filed bankruptcy to have real estate tax penalties discharged, that Glenwood Resort, Inc. was formed to purchase the lots owned by GPI, and that the same person is the sole shareholder, director, and officer of GPI and Glenwood Resort, Inc.

The appellant argues that during the bankruptcy proceeding the county's attorney did not advise the appellant that the sale would terminate the preferential assessment, which had continued despite prior sales. Nor did the county's attorney inform the appellant about the Illinois Department of Revenue's Publication 134, which addresses sales between developers. The publication was published in 2007. The appellant relied on continuing the preferential assessment in purchasing the property as had occurred for prior sales. Given Publication 134 was issued in 2007, the appellant argues it should not be retroactively applied to the 1991 and 1994 sales of the subject. The appellant contends the use and purpose have not changed from the prior owner as the lots are "developer inventory" for sale to ultimate users. Thus, the appellant argues the transfer would not have been done if it had been suggested that the change would result in a real estate tax status change.

Regarding the 2015 sale, the appellant contends that "sale from one developer to another," as discussed in Publication 134, differs from the past treatment of the subject property within LaSalle County in prior sale transactions as the intent of the preferential assessment afforded to developers was meant to protect against higher assessments until the property was out of the developer's possession. The appellant argues the conveyance by the bankruptcy trustee in 2015 does not "constitute a genuine sale" as outlined in Publication 134, as the trustee sold the lots to another developer.

Motion

The LCBOR filed a Motion to Dismiss in each case asserting Section 10-30(c) provides that "the initial sale of a platted lot, including a platted lot which is vacant" terminates the preferential assessment such that the "lot shall be assessed without regard" to this Section. The plain language of the provision is further supported by case law. See KT Winneburg, LLC v. Roth, 2020 IL App (4th) 190274, ¶ 13; Sycamore Cmty. Unit Sch.

Dist. No. 427 v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 2014 IL App (2d) 130055, ¶ 40; and Mill Creek Dev., Inc. v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 345 Ill. App. 3d 790, 796 (3d Dist. 2003).

Appellant's Response

The appellant's response reiterated the contention that the 2015 sale of the subject was not a "sale" under Section 10-30(c), emphasizing that the parties to the sale were related and the purchase price was equal to a sum sufficient to pay the outstanding real estate taxes, other creditors, and the costs of the bankruptcy.

- b. A & M Fulton West Owner, LLC: 22-41353.001 thru .002-C-3 (Cook) (West)

Motion to Vacate Dismissal, Reinstate & Accept Evidence or Alternatively Motion to Reinstate & Grant Extension

This timely commercial appeal of A & M Fulton West Owner, LLC comprised of two parcels from a Cook County Board of Review (CCBOR) Final Decision Letter sought a change in assessment from $9,576,751 to $4,325,000, with a basis of recent appraisal.

Timeline

- 09/14/2023 - PTAB sent the appellant an incomplete checklist requesting specific information, noting an error in a parcel number with a due date of 10/14/2023.
- 11/16/2023 – PTAB defaulted the appellant for failure to respond to the incomplete checklist information.

On 01/04/2023, the appellant submitted its Motion to Vacate PTAB Dismissal of the above appeal as follows:

- Due to "a human clerical error the second PIN on the filed Addendum consisted of one incorrect number." The correct PIN should have reflected 17-08-313-020-0000 instead of the PIN listed on the submitted appeal form (17-08-303-020-0000).
- The appellant respectfully requests that PTAB take into consideration the uniqueness of the overwhelming deadlines and delays caused by the Cook County Assessor Office's (CCAO) timeline for 2022 property tax valuation appeals. The appellant recognizes this is not an excuse but rather that the uniqueness of the condensed appeal deadlines resulting from CCAO's may have contributed to the human error when manually entering the second PIN for the subject property on the addendum.

The appellant requests PTAB reinstate the above appeal for substantial compliance with the substantive evidence filed 07/28/2023 as follows:

- The appellant filed an ad valorem appraisal to challenge the correctness of the assessment of the subject property as its substantive documentary evidence in support of the appeal as required under PTAB's rule Section 1910.63. The appraisal correctly listed the subject's two PINs and is sufficient to challenge the correctness of the assessment set by the CCBOR.
- The evidence in the record correctly reflects the two PINs, 17-08-313-018-0000 & 17-08-313-020-0000, in several sections in the appeal, namely 1) the official BOR decision, 2) pages 1 and 2 of the petition, and 3) page IV of the ad valorem Appraisal.

Therefore, out of fairness to the taxpayer and considering the substantial compliance with the substantive evidence filed and the correct PINs reflected in the record, the appellant requests that PTAB reinstate this appeal.

Alternatively, the appellant requests via a Motion to Reinstate this appeal and grant a 30-day extension to allow the appellant to respond to the incomplete checklist and correct the addendum for the second PIN.

- c. Gloria Vila: #19-54872.001 thru .003-R-1 (Cook) (Lyons)

Appellant's Motion to Vacate PTAB Decision

Gloria Vila timely submitted a 2019 tax year residential appeal comprised of three parcels from a favorable PTAB Decision seeking a change in assessment from $51,456 to $25,005, with bases of contention of law and recent appraisal. The appeal indicated "Direct Appeal" as typed at the top of the petition, and the brief further argued the appraisal should be controlling. Counsel's cover letter noted the appeal was being filed pursuant to Sec. 16-185 and within 30 days of the date of the decision. (Question 1b on the Residential Appeal petition was checked, and "yes" was checked, meaning that the property was an owner-occupied residence, although the appellant's address was set forth as the same as the law firm's.)

Timeline

- 07/07/2022 - PTAB accepted the appellant's appeal and notified the Cook County Board of Review (CCBOR).

- After an extension of time, CCBOR filed its evidence setting forth three properties with equity data and noting two of which had sold, one for $1 and one in April 2016.
- 10/17/2023 – PTAB issued its decision, which was decided by a majority vote, based upon the written record and found no change in the assessment of the property was warranted.

On 10/30/2023, the appellant submitted her motion to vacate the PTAB decision pursuant to PTAB Standing Order No. 3 and Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (Rollover Rule) as follows:

- The appellant filed a 2018 appeal with PTAB for the subject property, and on 04/19/2022, PTAB lowered the assessment of the subject property to $38,672 based on the agreement of the parties.
- The appellant filed a 2019 appeal with PTAB for the same subject property. The Lyons Township general assessment cycle consists of 2017 through 2019.
- The property in the motion is now reported to be an “owner-occupied” mixed-use building. The motion to vacate now asserts the owner occupied the property from 01/01/2018 to 12/31/2019. This motion contends the property owner did not sell the subject property during tax years 2018 or 2019 for a fair cash value different from the fair cash value on which the PTAB’s assessment is based.
- PTAB’s Standing Order No. 3 and Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code are directly applicable to the purported facts of the instant case. Therefore, the reduction rendered by PTAB in the 2018 PTAB case should remain for the remainder of the general assessment period, including tax year 2019, subject only to equalization.

The appellant requests that PTAB vacate the 2019 PTAB decision dated 10/17/2023 because the PTAB erroneously failed to follow the PTAB Standing Order No. 3 and Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (Rollover Rule).

d. Cook County’s Motion to Stay Hearings for Sixty Days.

Cook County seeks a stay in PTAB hearings for the months of April and May so Cook County can get its property tax bills calculated and mailed in a timelier manner. The CCBOR will appear for further explanation.
