

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Karin Tappendorf
DOCKET NO.: 12-26335.001-R-2
PARCEL NO.: 05-27-111-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Karin Tappendorf, the appellant; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 64,773
IMPR: $ 182,970
TOTAL: $ 247,743

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one and one-half story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,066 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 52 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement with a formal recreation room, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a four-car garage. The property has a 31,987 square foot site, and is located in Kenilworth, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. The appellant also submitted information on one comparable sale.

The Cook County Board of Review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal." Descriptive and assessment data was provided for the subject property, however, no further evidence was submitted.

In rebuttal, the appellant argued that the assessor's assessment methodology is flawed and that the board of review failed to provide any equity comparables.

At hearing, the appellant emphasized the similarities of the appellant's equity comparables as compared to the subject and the unique configuration of the assessor's neighborhood code 171.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1, #2, #3 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $15.78 to $53.05 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment of $68.78 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
