

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Paul Coen
DOCKET NO.: 20-35072.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-36-410-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Paul Coen, the appellant, by attorney Ellen G. Berkshire, of Verros Berkshire in Oakbrook Terrace; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,951
IMPR.: $68,255
TOTAL: $76,206

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 3,240 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 4 years old. Features of the home include a finished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a 2.5-car garage. The property has a 5,890 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four comparables located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,711 to 3,344 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 4 to 62 years old. One comparable has a concrete slab foundation, and three comparables have basements with two having finished area. Three comparables have one or two fireplaces. Each comparable has central air conditioning and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $39,141 to $66,665 or from $14.44 to $21.04 per square foot of living area. The appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $57,640 or $17.79 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $76,206. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $68,255 or $21.07 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,684 to 2,876 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 1 or 4 years old. Each comparable has a finished basement, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces, and either a 2-car or a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $58,247 to $76,391 or from $21.07 to $26.56 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the evidence in the record does not support a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The parties submitted eight equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparable #1 due to differences in its age, dwelling size, and foundation type when compared to the subject. The Board also gives less weight to the board of review comparable #1 due to its smaller dwelling size and the board of review comparables #2 and #3 due to their newly constructed one year-old dwellings when compared to the subject .

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables. These comparables are overall more similar to the subject in dwelling size, age, foundation type, and some features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $56,813 to $67,461 or from $17.49 to $24.08 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $68,255 or $21.07 per square foot of living area falls above the range of the best comparables in this record on an overall improvement assessment basis and within the range on a per-square-foot basis. However, after considering adjustments to the comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
