

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rajendra Gogia
DOCKET NO.: 21-02001.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-07-406-003

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rajendra Gogia, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago, and the Lake County Board of Review.¹

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $184,938
IMPR.: $226,816
TOTAL: $411,754

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of brick and wood siding exterior construction with 6,048 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 1989 and is approximately 31 years old. Features of the home include a slab foundation, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and an attached garage with 1,210 square feet of building area. The subject property also has an inground swimming pool. The property has a site with approximately 63,600 square feet of land area and is located in Lake Forest, West Deerfield Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on six equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are described as 1.8-story or 2-story dwellings of brick exterior construction ranging in size from 5,604 to 6,919 square feet of living area. The homes are from 32 to 34 years old. Each comparable has a slab foundation, central air conditioning, two or three fireplaces, and an attached garage ranging in size from 912 to 1,300 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $148,425 to $206,671 or from $27.02 to $30.42 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $411,754. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $226,816 or $37.50 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are described as 1.75-story or 2-story dwellings of brick or brick and wood siding exterior construction ranging in size from 5,477 to 6,517 square feet of living area. The homes were built from 1987 to 1993. Four comparables have basements, three of which have a recreation room. One comparable has a slab foundation. Each comparable has central air conditioning, one to three fireplaces, and an attached garage ranging in size from 920 to 1,518 square feet of building area. Comparables #1, #2, #4 and #5 have inground swimming pools. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $229,327 to $285,365 or from $28.01 to $38.60 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requests confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains nine comparables submitted by the parties to support their respective positions. The Board gives less weight to board of review comparables #1 through #4 which have basement foundations in comparison to the subject's slab foundation.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables along with board of review comparable #5 which are all relatively similar to the subject in location, age, style, size and some features. However, the Board finds the appellant's comparables do not to have inground swimming pools like the subject, therefore, these comparables would require upward adjustments to make them more equivalent to the subject property that has an inground swimming pool. The seven comparables have improvement assessments that range from $148,425 to $229,327 or from $27.02 to $38.59 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $226,816 or $37.50 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the comparables in this record. Based on this record, after considering adjustments to the comparables for differences from the subject property, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
