

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: David Soskin
DOCKET NO.: 01-23133.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-33-208-021-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are David Soskin, the appellant, by attorney Patrick J. Cullerton of Fagel & Haber, of Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a 65-year-old, one-story single-family dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,522 square feet of living area and located in New Trier Township, Cook County. The residence contains two and one-half bathrooms, a full basement, air conditioning, a fireplace and a one-car garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the PTAB claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered four suggested comparable properties located within a half mile of the subject. These properties consist of one-story single-family dwellings of masonry construction and range in age from 42 to 51 years. The comparables have one or two bathrooms and full or partial basements, two finished. Two homes are air-conditioned and one has a fireplace. There is no indication of garages. The comparables contain between 1,249 and 1,660 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $13,702 to $21,258 or from $10.97 to $13.00 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $26,940, or $17.70 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board offered four suggested comparable properties located within two blocks of the subject. The comparables consist of one-story single-family dwellings of masonry or frame construction and range in age from 77 to 85 years. The comparables contain one or two bathrooms with some half-baths, full basements, three finished, one has air conditioning, all have fireplaces and one or two-car garages. The comparables range in size from 1,321 to 1,468 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments of between $25,026 and $31,094 or from $17.76 to $21.18 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the PTAB finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the PTAB finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

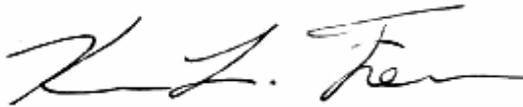

The PTAB finds the board's comparables one, two and three and the appellant's comparables two, three and four are the comparables most similar to the subject. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $12.81 to $19.37 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $17.70 is within this range of properties. The PTAB gives less weight to the remaining comparables because they are less similar to the subject in living area or construction. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence is insufficient to effect a change in the subject's current assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to adequately demonstrate that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
