

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Roger E. Duba
DOCKET NO.: 03-24791.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-18-106-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Roger E. Duba, the appellant, by attorney Richard E. Zulkey of Richard E. Zulkey & Associates, Chartered, Chicago, Illinois; and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property consists of a three-story brick apartment building with eleven stores on the first floor and twenty-two apartments on floors two and three. The subject building contains a gross-floor area of 48,060 square feet. The building was constructed in 1916 and is located on an 18,750 square foot parcel in Chicago, Lakeview Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $950,000 as of January 1, 2003. The appellant further noted the subject property has a classification under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Code of 3-18, mixed use commercial/residential property with apartments and commercial area totaling seven units or more with square foot area of over 20,000 square feet, and is to be assessed at 30% of market value. The appellant also submitted a copy of the board of review final decision disclosing a total assessment of $363,780, which reflects a market value of $1,212,600. Based on this evidence the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to $285,000 to reflect the appraised value.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$	72,000
IMPR.:	$	213,000
TOTAL:	$	285,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant in this appeal submitted a narrative appraisal in support of the contention that the subject property was not accurately assessed. The appraisal contained an estimate of value for the subject property of $950,000 as of January 1, 2003. The subject's assessment of $363,780 reflects a market value of $1,212,600 using the 30% level of assessment for Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance class 3 property, which is greater than the appraised value. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has examined the information submitted by the appellant and finds that it supports a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property commensurate with the appellant's request.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
