

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Susan Peterson
DOCKET NO.: 03-26651.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-17-303-016-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Susan Peterson, the appellant, by attorney Michael Griffin of Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property consists of a 33-year-old, two-story style single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction located in Northfield Township, Cook County.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered a table suggesting four comparable properties. Neither the proximity of the comparables to the subject or descriptive information regarding the comparables was disclosed. According to the appellant's documentation, the suggested comparables range in size from 2,788 to 3,470 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $10.90 to $13.97 per square foot of living area. A copy of the subject's 2003 board of review final decision was also included. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $46,427, or $16.63 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review offered property characteristic sheets and a spreadsheet detailing one suggested comparable properties located in the same coded assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparable consists of a 33-year-old, two-story style single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction. The comparable contains a basement, central air-conditioning, a fireplace and a garage. This property contains 2,814 square feet of living area and has an improvement assessment of $18.01 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 12,914
IMPR.: $ 46,427
TOTAL: $ 59,341

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The appellant's argument was unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

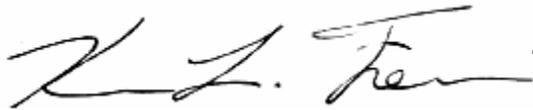

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the appellant's suggested comparable properties do not provide any support for a reduction in the subject's assessment. The only information provided by the appellant with regard to the properties submitted were square feet of living area, property index numbers, addresses, and assessments. Without adequate descriptions of the properties, it is impossible to evaluate their comparability to the subject. Further, the Board finds that while the board of review presented only one comparable, its improvement is similar to the subject and lends support the subject's current assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to adequately demonstrate that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
