

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Eileen O'Boyle
DOCKET NO.: 03-30453.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-100-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Eileen O'Boyle, the appellant, by attorney Melissa Whitley of Marino & Associates, P.C. of Chicago and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a six-year-old, three-story, three-unit apartment building of masonry construction containing 6,224 square feet of living area and located in West Township, Cook County. The apartment property includes six bathrooms, a full finished basement, air conditioning and no garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered three suggested comparable properties located within two blocks of the subject. These properties consist of three-story apartment buildings of masonry construction and are 110 years old. Some of the comparables contain commercial units. The comparables include two bathrooms, partial basements and one site has a two-car garage. The number of apartment units was not disclosed. The comparables contain between 4,248 and 6,072 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $25,174 to $38,887 or from $5.76 to $6.08 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $59,595, or $9.58 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review offered three suggested comparable properties located within six blocks of the subject. The comparables consist of three-story, three-unit buildings of masonry construction. The comparables

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the COOK County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

TOTAL: $65,000

range in age from 88 to 115 years, full basements and one site has a two-car garage. The buildings have three bathrooms. The comparable properties contain between 3,432 and 3,749 square feet of living area with improvement assessments ranging from $39,257 to $40,801 or from $10.88 to $11.43 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

Both parties submitted a total of six suggested comparables that the PTAB finds not at all similar to the subject in age and therefore gives the six comparables little weight. As is, the six properties have improvement assessments ranging from $5.76 to $11.43 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $9.57 is within this range of properties. The PTAB also affords less weight to the six comparables because they are less similar in living area. After considering the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence is insufficient to effect a change in the subject's assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the PTAB finds the appellant did not adequately demonstrate that the subject apartment building was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
