

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Kimberly H. Dietz
DOCKET NO.: 04-20192.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-24-423-038-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Kimberly H. Dietz, the appellant, by attorney Brian P. Liston of Chicago and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a one-year-old, two-story single-family dwelling of frame construction containing 2,893 square feet of living area and located in Evanston Township, Cook County. The residence contains two and one-half bathrooms, a full basement, air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the PTAB claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered four suggested comparable properties located within a quarter mile of the subject. These properties consist of two-story single-family dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry construction and range in age from 49 to 57 years. The comparables have two bathrooms with some half-baths and full basements, two finished. The homes are air-conditioned; one has a fireplace and three have two-car garages. The comparables contain between 2,080 and 2,993 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $36,742 to $52,192 or from $17.44 to $17.66 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $70,906, or $24.51 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board offered printouts of the parcel describing its characteristics. The board also disclosed the property was purchased for $780,483 in May of 2003. The board offered no other evidence to support the subject's current assessment. Based on this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the COOK County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 7,094
IMPR. $70,906
TOTAL: $78,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

PTAB/TMcG.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the PTAB finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the PTAB finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

The PTAB finds the appellant submitted four comparables somewhat similar to the subject except that the four comparables are much older than the subject. The PTAB gives little or no weight to the appellant's comparables because they are much less similar to the subject in age. The subject is a new property and the appellant's comparables range in age from 49 to 57 years. After considering the suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence submitted is insufficient to effect a change in the subject's assessment.

Aside from the sale the board offered no equity evidence to support the subject's assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to adequately demonstrate that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
