

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Hebe Forgione
DOCKET NO.: 04-26373.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-31-111-042-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Hebe Forgione, the appellants, by attorney Lisa A. Marino of Marino & Associates of Chicago and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property consists of a 46-year-old, split-level single-family dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,528 square feet of living area and located in New Trier Township, Cook County. The residence contains two and one half bathrooms, a finished partial basement, air conditioning and a one-car garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the PTAB claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered four suggested comparable properties located within three blocks of the subject. These properties consist of split-level single-family dwellings of frame and masonry or masonry construction and range in age from 39 to 49 years. The comparables have two bathrooms and finished partial basements. Two homes are air-conditioned; three have fireplaces and three have two-car garages. The comparables contain between 1,590 and 2,110 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $20,774 to $26,969 or from $12.74 to $13.69 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $23,118, or $15.13 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review offered three suggested comparable properties located within a block of the subject. The comparables consist of split-level single-family dwellings of masonry construction and range in age from 46 to 49 years. The comparables contain one or two bathrooms with half-baths, finished partial basements; two have air conditioning, one with a fireplace and two have two-car

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the COOK County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is: garages. The comparables contain between 1,328 and 1,547 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments of between $26,026 and $29,021 or from $18.47 to $19.60 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

LAND: $12,069
IMPR: $23,118
TOTAL: $35,187

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

The PTAB finds the board's comparables two and three and the appellant's comparable three are the comparables most similar to the subject. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $13.07 to $18.76 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $15.13 is within the range of these properties. The Board gives less weight to the remaining comparables because they are less similar to the subject in living area. After considering the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence is insufficient to effect a change in the subject's assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to adequately demonstrate that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
