

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Nicholas V. Santoro
DOCKET NO.: 05-20145.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-27-309-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Nicholas V. Santoro, the appellant(s), by attorney Joseph G. Kusper, of Storino Ramello & Durkin of Rosemont; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 45,006
IMPR.: $ 110,312
TOTAL: $ 155,318

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 62,509 square foot parcel improved with a one-year-old, two-story style single-family dwelling of masonry construction. Containing 6,852 square feet of living area, the subject features six full baths, two half baths, a full, finished basement, central air conditioning, four fireplaces, and a four-car garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered a spreadsheet detailing three suggested comparable properties located in the same coded assessment neighborhood as the subject. These properties consist of two-story style single-family dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry construction from six to fifteen years old. The comparables range in size from 4,386 to 5,741 square feet of living area with amenities such as three or four full baths; one or two half baths; full, unfinished basements; central air conditioning; one or two fireplaces; and three or three and one-half car garages. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $2.26 to $10.12 per square foot of living area. A copy of the subject's 2005 board of review final decision was also included. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $110,312, or $16.10 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review offered property characteristic sheets and a spreadsheet detailing four suggested comparable properties located on the same street as the subject. The comparables consist of two-story style single-family dwellings of masonry construction from four to eleven years old. These properties range in size from 6,366 to 6,908 square feet of living area and have amenities such as from three to five full baths; half baths; full, finished or unfinished basements; central air conditioning, two or three fireplaces; and four car garages. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16.85 to $17.77 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The appellant's argument was unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the parties submitted by the board of review are the most similar to the subject in location, size, construction type, and amenities. The Board accords substantial and primary weight to the properties to these properties. The Board finds that the appellant's comparables are inferior in size and location; and comparables one and two are inferior in construction type when compared to the subject. The Board accords the appellant's comparables diminished weight. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the Board finds the subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $16.10 is supported by the properties contained in the record.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to adequately demonstrate that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and no reduction is warranted.
