

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Irwin Wiemers
DOCKET NO.: 06-00487.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-1-03-15-00-000-019

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Irwin Wiemers, the appellant; and the Madison County Board of Review.

The subject property is improved with a one-story single family dwelling that contains 1,440 square feet of living area. The dwelling is of brick exterior construction with features that include a full basement, central air conditioning and a one-car detached garage. The property is located in Dorsey, Moro Township, Madison County.

The appellant claims overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on two comparable sales to demonstrate the subject was overvalued. The evidence further revealed that the appellant did not file a complaint with the board of review but filed the appeal directly to the Property Tax Appeal Board following receipt of the notice of an equalization factor increasing the subject's assessment from $34,130 to $38,320. Based on this evidence the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to $33,467.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject property's final assessment was disclosed. After reviewing the appellant's evidence, the board of review agreed to reduce the subject's assessment by the amount of increase caused by the application of the equalization factor.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Madison County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$	6,180
IMPR.:	$	27,950
TOTAL:	$	34,130

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

PTAB/smw/06-00487

finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The Board finds the appellant submitted information on comparable sales to demonstrate the subject was overvalued. The Board finds, however, the record indicates that the appellant did not file a complaint with the board of review but appealed the assessment directly to the Property Tax Appeal Board based on notice of an equalization factor. Since the appeal was filed after notification of an equalization factor, the amount of relief that the Property Tax Appeal Board can grant is limited. Section 1910.60(a) of the Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board states in part:

If the taxpayer or owner of property files a petition within 30 days after the postmark date of the written notice of the application of final, adopted township equalization factors, the relief the Property Tax Appeal Board may grant is limited to the amount of the increase caused by the application of the township equalization factor. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.60(a).

Additionally, section 16-180 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-180) provides in pertinent part:

Where no complaint has been made to the board of review of the county where the property is located and the appeal is based solely on the effect of an equalization factor assigned to all property or to a class of property by the board of review, the Property Tax Appeal Board may not grant a reduction in the assessment greater than the amount that was added as the result of the equalization factor.

These provisions mean that where a taxpayer files an appeal directly to the Property Tax Appeal Board after notice of application of an equalization factor, the Board cannot grant an assessment reduction greater than the amount of increase caused by the equalization factor. Villa Retirement Apartments, Inc. v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 302 Ill.App.3d 745, 753 (4th Dist. 1999). Based on a review of the evidence contained in the record, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds a reduction in the assessment of the subject property commensurate with the board of review's recommendation is supported.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
