

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Alex Covarrubias
DOCKET NO.: 06-20051.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-30-210-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alex Covarrubias, the appellant, by attorney Rusty Payton of the Law Offices of Rusty Payton, P.C., Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,303 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 82 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and a 1.5-car detached garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on four comparable properties described as three, one-story dwellings and a one and one-half story dwelling of masonry construction that range in size from 1,314 to 1,594 square feet of living area. The comparable dwellings range in age from 68 to 102 years old. Three of the comparables are described as having basements and one has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $9.57 to $11.35 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $13.87 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $23,170 was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on two comparable properties consisting of one-story masonry dwellings that have 1,283 and 1,300 square feet of living area, respectively. The dwellings are 81 and 83 years old. Each comparable has a basement and a two-car detached garage. These properties have improvement assessments of $14.06 and $14.35 per square foot of living area. The board of review also indicated the subject sold in August 2005 for a price of

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 5,100
IMPR.: $ 18,070
TOTAL: $ 23,170

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

$240,000. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds the comparables submitted by the board of review were most similar to the subject in size, style, features and age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments of $14.06 and $14.35 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $13.87 per square foot of living area is below that established by the most similar comparables. Furthermore, the Board finds the purchase price of the subject as quoted by the board of review supports the subject's assessment. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

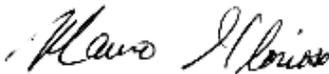

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
