

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Patrick Kearney
DOCKET NO.: 06-20857.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 23-27-108-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Patrick Kearney, the appellant, and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a 52-year-old, one-story single-family dwelling of masonry and frame construction containing 1,914 square feet of living area and located in Palos Township, Cook County. The residence contains one and one-half bathrooms, a finished partial basement, air conditioning a fireplace and a two-car garage.

The appellant submitted evidence before the PTAB claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered four suggested comparable properties with suggested corrections that are located within one quarter to one half mile of the subject. These properties consist of one-story single-family dwellings of masonry, frame or frame and masonry construction and range in age from 50 to 56 years. The comparables have two bathrooms with some half-baths and one has an unfinished basement. One home is air-conditioned and three have fireplaces. Each site has one or two-car garages. The comparables contain between 1,990 and 2,316 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $21,408 to $27,723 or from $10.52 to $11.97 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $24,228, or $12.66 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board offered three suggested comparable properties located within a quarter mile of the subject. The comparables consist of one-story single-family dwelling of masonry construction and range in age from 47 to 57 years. The comparables contain one or two bathrooms with half-baths, partial basements, two finished, two with fireplaces, all have air conditioning and one two or three-car garages. The comparables range in size from 1,976 to 2,099 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments of between $27,344 and $36,702 or from $13.02 to $17.50 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the PTAB finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the PTAB finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

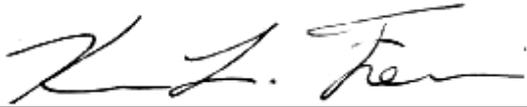

The PTAB finds the board's three comparables and the appellant's comparable one are the comparables most similar to the subject. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $10.76 to $17.50 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $12.66 is within this range of properties. The PTAB gives less weight to the appellant's remaining comparables because they are slightly less similar to the subject in living area. After considering suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence is insufficient to effect a change in the subject's current assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to adequately demonstrate that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
