

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kabil Mila
DOCKET NO.: 06-21009.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-36-312-045-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kabil Mila, the appellant, by attorney Lisa A. Marino of Marino & Assoc., PC of Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 8,238
IMPR.: $ 27,051
TOTAL: $ 35,289

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,637 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 49 years old. Features of the home include a full, unfinished basement, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on four comparable properties described as two-story masonry dwellings that are either 59 or 60 years old. According to the appellant, the comparables are located from five to seven blocks from the subject property. The comparable dwellings range in size from 1,933 to 1,992 square feet of living area. Three comparables have full, unfinished basements, and one has a partial, finished basement. One dwelling has central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $14.70 to $14.85 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $16.52 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed.

The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of two-story masonry dwellings that range in age from 52 to 56 years old. Based on their parcel index numbers, two comparables are located near the subject, and two are located in the same general area. The dwellings range in size from 1,564 to 1,638 square feet of living area. Two comparables have full, unfinished basements, and two have full, finished basements. Two dwellings have central air conditioning; one has a fireplace; and three have two-car garages. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $16.54 to $17.45 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

All of the eight comparables submitted by both parties were very similar to the subject in style and exterior construction, and six of the eight comparables were very similar to the subject in location. However, the appellant's comparables were from 18% to 22% larger than the subject, and they were also ten or eleven years older than the subject. As a result, the appellant's comparables received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The Board finds the comparables submitted by the board of review were most similar to the subject in size and age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $16.54 to $17.45 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $16.52 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
