

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dennis Cannon
DOCKET NO.: 06-22212.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-09-320-065-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dennis Cannon, the appellant, by attorney Rusty Payton of the Law Offices of Rusty Payton, P.C., Chicago, Illinois; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 1,426
IMPR.: $ 12,194
TOTAL: $ 13,620

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling of frame construction containing 823 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 114 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and a two-car detached garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on three comparable properties described as one-story frame or masonry dwellings that range in age from 51 to 94 years old. The comparable dwellings have 984 or 985 square feet of living area. Two have unfinished basements and air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $11.03 to $11.10 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $14.82 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on three comparable properties consisting of one-story frame dwellings that range in age from 81 to 104 years old.

The dwellings range in size from 572 to 880 square feet of living area. Two have basements, one of which is finished. One has a two-car garage, and one has a one-car garage. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $14.83 to $18.50 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds the comparables submitted by the both parties were not similar to the subject in many characteristics. The appellant's comparables were generally larger and newer than the subject, two of the three were of a different exterior construction, and the appellant's evidence did not indicate whether they had garages. Two of the board of review's comparables were much smaller than the subject, and two were much newer. None of the comparables submitted by either party were very similar to the subject, and none received more weight in the Board's analysis. All comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $11.03 to $18.50 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $14.82 per square foot of living area is within the range established by all comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
