

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: JER Associates
DOCKET NO.: 06-24579.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-22-100-060-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are JER Associates, the appellant, by attorney Herbert B. Rosenberg, of Schoenberg Finkel Newman & Rosenberg LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 2,553
IMPR.: $ 29,867
TOTAL: $ 32,420

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story multi-family dwelling of masonry construction containing 4,058 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 45 years old. Features of the home include a concrete slab foundation.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four comparable properties located one block from the subject. They are described as two-story masonry dwellings that range in age from 44 to 46 years old and contain either 5,308 or 5,359 square feet of living area. The comparables have a full, finished basement. The comparables have improvement assessments of either $5.45 or $5.48 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $7.36 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties. Two are located on the same block as the subject; one is one-quarter mile from the subject and another is in a subarea. They have the same neighborhood code as the subject. They consist of two-story masonry dwellings that are either 45 or 46 years old. The dwellings contain either 3,562 or 4,058 square feet of living area. Two comparables have full basements, one of which is finished and two have concrete slab foundations. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $7.63 to $8.34 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds the board of review's comparables one and two were most similar to the subject in size and foundation. They were also similar to the subject in location, age, design and exterior construction. Due to their similarities with the subject, they received the most weight in the Board's analysis. They had improvement assessments of either $7.63 or $7.71 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $7.36 per square foot of living area is below the assessments established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
