

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Leslie Semmel
DOCKET NO.: 06-27633.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-32-104-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Leslie Semmel, the appellant, by attorney Mitchell L. Klein of Schiller Klein PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 24,641
IMPR.: $ 56,525
TOTAL: $ 81,166

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,440 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 118 years old. Features of the home include a slab foundation, central air conditioning, three fireplaces, and a two-car garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on three comparable properties described as two-story masonry dwellings that are either 118 or 123 years old. Based on their parcel index numbers, the comparables are located near the subject. The comparable dwellings range in size from 1,472 to 1,726 square feet of living area. One comparable has a partial, finished basement; one has a full, unfinished basement; and one has a crawl-space foundation. Two comparables have a garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $34.09 to $36.94 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $39.25 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of two-story masonry dwellings that range in age from 108 to 128 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,350 to 1,760 square feet of living area. Three comparables have full, unfinished basements, and one has a slab foundation. Each comparable has a garage; one has central air conditioning; and two have one or two fireplaces. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $39.20 to $42.06 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

Both parties presented assessment data on a total of seven equity comparables. All of the comparables submitted by both parties were very similar to the subject in age, style, and exterior construction. The appellant's comparable numbered one was somewhat larger in size than the subject and received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The comparables numbered three and four by the board of review were also somewhat larger than the subject and likewise received reduced weight. The Board finds the comparables numbered one and two by the board of review were most similar to the subject in location and were very similar in size. The appellant's comparables numbered two and three were also very similar to the subject in size. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $34.09 to $42.06 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $39.25 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
