

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Jonathan Gasser
DOCKET NO.: 06-29251.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-03-315-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Jonathan Gasser, the appellant, by attorney Marc M. Pekay/Idala Strouse of Chicago and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a 78-year-old, two-story single-family dwelling of masonry construction containing 2,470 square feet of living area and located in Jefferson Township, Cook County. The residence contains one and one-half bathrooms, a full finished basement, a fireplace and a one-car garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the PTAB claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered three suggested comparable properties located within a quarter mile of the subject. These properties consist of two-story single-family dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry construction and range in age from 66 to 81 years. The comparables have two, three or four bathrooms with half-baths and full or partial basements, one finished. The homes are air-conditioned and all have fireplaces. The comparables have two-car garages. The comparables contain between 2,263 and 3,206 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $52,537 to $63,453 or from $19.48 to $23.22 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $72,988, or $29.55 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board offered a printout of the subject describing the subject's various components. In addition the board disclosed the subject's November 2004 purchase price of $875,000. The board offered no other evidence in support of the subject's current assessment. Based on this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,512
IMPR. $57,488
TOTAL: $72,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

PTAB/TMcG.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the PTAB finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the PTAB finds the appellant has overcome this burden.

The PTAB finds the appellant's three comparables are similar to the subject but subject to adjustment for size and construction materials. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $19.48 to $23.22 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $29.55 is above this range of properties. The PTAB finds the board did not submit equity evidence in support of the subject's assessment. After considering the differences in the suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence submitted is sufficient to effect a change in the subject's assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant has adequately demonstrated that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction is warranted.

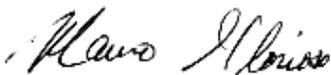

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
