

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bryan Hanson
DOCKET NO.: 06-29323.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-11-204-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bryan Hanson, the appellant(s), by attorney Lisa A. Marino, of Marino & Assoc., PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 4,723
IMPR.: $ 17,440
TOTAL: $ 22,163

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 2,880 square foot parcel of land improved with a 89-year old, three-story, masonry, mixed-use building containing 3,513 square feet of living area, three and two-half baths and a partial, unfinished basement. The appellant argued both unequal treatment in the assessment process and that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in the property's assessed valuation as the bases of this appeal.

In support of the equity argument, the appellant, via counsel, submitted information on a total of four properties suggested as comparable and located within two blocks of the subject. The properties are described as two-story, masonry, mixed-use buildings with two to six and two-half baths, a partial, unfinished basement and, for one property, air conditioning. The properties range: in age from 90 to 108 years; in size from 2,184 to 5,976 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessments from $3.22 to $3.76 per square foot of living area.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted copies of income tax statements for the subject property for 2004 and 2005 and a hand written document listing income for 2006. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's improvement assessment of $17,440 or $4.96 per square foot of living area was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on a total of four properties suggested as comparable and located within the subject's neighborhood. The properties are described as two-story, masonry, mixed-use buildings with two or four baths and a partial, unfinished basement. The properties range: in age from 97 to 105 years; in size from 3,252 to 3,400 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $5.05 to $5.28 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

At hearing, the appellant's attorney reiterated the position that the subject is inequitably assessed and argued that all the appellant's suggested comparables were similar to the subject, but that comparables #2 and #3 were the best.

The board of review's representative argued that the income and expenses should not be looked at for a class 2 property.

After reviewing the record and considering the testimony, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The parties submitted a total of eight properties suggested as comparable to the subject. The PTAB finds the board of review's comparables the most similar to the subject in exterior construction, size, amenities, and age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the PTAB's analysis. The properties are masonry, two-story, mixed-use buildings located within the subject's neighborhood. The properties range: in age from 97 to 105 years; in size from 3,252 to 3,400 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $5.05 to $5.28 per square foot of living area. In comparison, the subject's improvement assessment of $4.96 per square foot of living area is below the range of these comparables. The remaining comparables were given less weight due to disparities in size. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's per square foot improvement assessment is supported and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

When overvaluation is claimed the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); Winnebago County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 313 Ill.App.3d 179 (2nd Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c). Having considered the evidence presented, the PTAB concludes that the evidence indicates a reduction is not warranted.

The appellant submitted documentation showing the income of the subject property. The PTAB gives the appellant's argument little weight. In Springfield Marine Bank v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 44 Ill.2d 428 (1970), the court stated:

[I]t is the value of the "tract or lot of real property" which is assessed, rather than the value of the interest presently held. . . [R]ental income may of course be a relevant factor. However, it cannot be the controlling factor, particularly where it is admittedly misleading as to the fair cash value of the property involved. . . [E]arning capacity is properly regarded as the most significant element in arriving at "fair cash value".

Many factors may prevent a property owner from realizing an income from property that accurately reflects its true earning capacity; but it is the capacity for earning income, rather than the income actually derived, which reflects "fair cash value" for taxation purposes. Id. at 431.

Actual expenses and income based on vacancy can be useful when shown that they are reflective of the market. Although the appellant's attorney made this argument, the appellant did not demonstrate through an expert in real estate valuation that the subject's actual income and expenses are reflective of the market. To demonstrate or estimate the subject's market value using income, one must establish, through the use of market data, the market rent, vacancy and collection losses, and expenses to arrive at a net operating income reflective of the market and the property's capacity for earning income. The appellant did not provide such evidence and, therefore, the PTAB gives this argument no weight and finds that a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
