

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Colin Reilly
DOCKET NO.: 06-29591.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 32-06-309-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Colin Reilly, the appellant, by attorney Rusty Payton of the Law Offices of Rusty Payton, P.C., Chicago, Illinois; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,060
IMPR.: $11,507
TOTAL: $15,567

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 1868 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 51 years old. Features of the home include a partial, finished basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a two-car garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on four comparable properties described as one-story or two-story frame and masonry dwellings that range in age from 52 to 76 years old. The comparable dwellings range in size from 1803 to 2136 square feet of living area. All have fireplaces, three have central air conditioning, and two have full basements, one of which is finished. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $5.71 to $6.23 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $9.54 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on two comparable properties consisting of one-story frame or masonry dwellings that are 18 or 49 years old. The dwellings have 1814 and 2125 square feet of living area. Features include full or partial, unfinished basements, fireplaces and one and one-half-car or two-car garages. One has central air conditioning. These properties have improvement assessments of $9.46 and $10.45 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has met this burden.

The Board finds the comparables submitted by the appellant were most similar to the subject in exterior construction and gives reduced weight to the board of review's comparables in its analysis. The Board also finds the appellant's comparable #2 was of a different design and gives it reduced weight in its analysis. The remaining three comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $5.71 to $6.23 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $9.54 per square foot of living area is higher than the range established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is not equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
