

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Daniel Fox
DOCKET NO.: 07-21023.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-01-403-022-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Daniel Fox, the appellant, by attorney Mitchell L. Klein, of Schiller Klein PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $29,970
IMPR: $103,264
TOTAL: $133,234

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a 1-story dwelling of frame construction containing 3,836 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 58 years old and on a crawl space foundation. Features of the home include central air conditioning, 2 fireplaces and a 2-car garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on three comparable properties described as 1-story masonry or frame and masonry dwellings that range in age from 48 to 55 years old. The comparable dwellings range in size from 3,742 to 4,057 square feet of living area. All comparables feature partial basements, one of which is finished. All have 1 or 2 fireplaces and 2-car garages. Two comparables feature central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22.41 to $24.55 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $26.92 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of 1-story frame dwellings that range in age from 51 to 58 years old. The dwellings range in size from 2,347 to 3,395 square feet of living area. All comparables feature full or partial basements, two of which are finished. All have 1 or 2-car garages. Three comparables feature central air conditioning and fireplaces. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $27.24 to $27.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In rebuttal the appellant points out the differences in size and basements between the subject and the comparables submitted by the board of review.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

Three comparables submitted by the board of review were much smaller than the subject and therefore received less weight in the Board's analysis. Although all three comparables submitted by the appellant differed from the subject in exterior construction, and none of the comparables submitted by either party had crawl space foundations, the Board finds the comparables submitted by the appellant and comparable #4 submitted by the board of review were most similar to the subject in size, style and age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $22.41 to $27.67 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $26.92 per square foot of living area is within the range established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
