

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Josephine Dwyer
DOCKET NO.: 07-22223.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-20-402-018-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Josephine Dwyer, the appellant, by attorney Edward Larkin, of Larkin & Larkin in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 29,484
IMPR.: $ 93,864
TOTAL: $ 123,348

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 43-year-old, one and one-half story, single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 3,266 square feet of living area and located in New Trier Township, Cook County. Features of the residence include three and one half-baths, four bedrooms, a full, unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and an attached two-car garage.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of the equity argument, the appellant submitted descriptive and assessment data for three suggested comparables located in the subject's neighborhood. The properties are improved with a one and one-half story, frame, masonry, or frame and masonry, single-family dwelling. They range: in age from 52 to 121 years; in size from 1,812 to 4,135 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $25.12 to $26.30 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $28.74 per square foot of living area.

Amenities for the suggested comparable properties include two full to five and one half-baths, central air conditioning for two properties, a partial, finished or unfinished basement for two properties, one or three fireplaces, and a one to two-car garage. Based upon this analysis, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's improvement assessment of $93,864 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment data, as well as black and white photographs, relating to four suggested comparables, one of which is located within a one-quarter mile radius of the subject property. The properties are improved with a one and one-half story, frame and masonry, single-family dwelling. They range: in age from 41 to 55 years; in size from 1,825 to 3,757 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $30.45 to $42.02 per square foot of living area. Amenities for the properties include two and one-half to four full baths, four bedrooms, a crawl, full, or partial, finished or unfinished basement, central air conditioning for three properties, one or two fireplaces, and a two-car garage. Based upon this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In written rebuttal, the appellant stated that the board's comparables are: blocks, if not miles, away from the subject; significantly smaller than the subject; and more distant from the subject than the appellant's comparables.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The parties submitted a total of seven suggested comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board finds that comparables #1, #2 and #4 submitted by the board of review are most similar to the subject in design, exterior construction, age, improvement size, and/or amenities. They are one and one-half story, frame and masonry dwellings that contain between 2,331 and 3,757 square feet of living area. They range in age from 41 to 54 years. In analysis, the Board accorded the most weight to these comparables. These comparables ranged in improvement assessment from $31.22 to $42.02 per square foot of building area. The subject's improvement assessment at $28.74 per square foot is within the range established by these comparables.

After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require a mathematical equality. A practical, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence. For the foregoing reasons, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property is inequitably assessed. Therefore, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the subject's assessment as established by the board of review is correct and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
