

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Anthony Fox
DOCKET NO.: 07-24072.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 11-19-409-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Anthony Fox, the appellant(s), by attorney Arnold G. Siegel, of Siegel & Callahan, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $17,237
IMPR.: $54,047
TOTAL: $71,284

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of an 8,450 square foot parcel of land improved with a 97-year old, stucco, single-family dwelling containing 2,724 square feet of living area. The appellant argued that the fair market value of the subject was not accurately reflected in its assessed value as the basis of the appeal.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal undertaken by David Conaghan and Mitchell Perlow of Property Valuation Services, LLC. The report indicates Conaghan and Perlow are State of Illinois certified appraisers with Perlow holding the MAI designation. The appraisers indicated an estimated market value of $710,000 as of March 28, 2008. The appraisal report utilized the cost and sales comparison approaches to value to estimate the market value for the subject property.

In the cost approach to value, the appraiser developed the land values on five properties using the extraction method to estimate a land value for the subject of $480,000. The reproduction cost new was utilized to estimate a value for the improvement of $873,713. This value was depreciated by 73% using the age/life method. Site improvements of $10,000 and the land were then added back in to estimate a value for the subject property under the cost approach of $725,000.

Under the sales comparison approach, the appraiser analyzed the sales of five properties described as masonry, frame or frame and masonry, two-story, single-family dwellings located within the subject's market. The properties contain between 2,475 to 3,537 square feet of living area and sold from March 2007 to March 2008 for prices ranging from $675,000 to $765,000, or $216.28 to $270.30 per square foot of living area, including land. The appraiser adjusted each of the comparables for pertinent factors. Based on the similarities and difference of the comparables when compared to the subject, the appraiser estimated a value for the subject under the sales comparison approach of $260.00 per square foot of living area or $710,000, rounded.

In reconciling the approaches, the appraiser judged the sales comparison approach to be the most reliable and gave secondary emphasis on the cost approach to determine a final estimate of value for the subject as of January 1, 2007 of $710,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $113,600 was disclosed. The subject's final assessment reflects a fair market value of $1,131,474 when the Illinois Department of Revenue's 2007 three-year median level of assessment of 10.04% for Cook County Class 2 properties is applied. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted the property characteristic printout for the subject property and listed the sale of the subject in October 2004 for $1,250,000. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

When overvaluation is claimed the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); Winnebago County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 313 Ill.App.3d 179 (2nd Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c). Having considered the market value evidence presented, the PTAB concludes that this evidence indicates a reduction is warranted.

In determining the fair market value of the subject property, the PTAB finds the best evidence to be the appellant's appraisal. The appellant's appraiser utilized the cost and sales comparison approaches to value in determining the subject's market value. The PTAB finds this appraisal to be persuasive for the appraiser: has experience in appraising; personally inspected the subject property and reviewed the property's history; and used similar properties in the sales comparison approach while providing sufficient detail regarding each sale as well as adjustments that were necessary. The PTAB gives little weight to the board of review's comparables as the information provided did not contain any market value information.

Therefore, the PTAB finds the subject had a market value of $710,000 for the 2007 assessment year. Since the market value of this parcel has been established, the Illinois Department of Revenue's 2007 three-year median level of assessment of 10.04% for Cook County Class 2 properties will apply. In applying this level of assessment to the subject, the total assessed value is $71,284 while the subject's current total assessed value is above this amount. Therefore, the PTAB finds that a reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
