

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bodgan Krol
DOCKET NO.: 07-25137.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 22-35-104-027-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bodgan Krol, the appellant, by attorney John P. Fitzgerald, of Fitzgerald Law Group, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 34,911
IMPR: $ 0
TOTAL: $ 34,911

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject has 37,339 square feet of land. The appellant, via counsel, argued that there was unequal treatment in the assessment process of the subject's land as the basis of this appeal.

In support of the equity argument, the appellant submitted assessment information for four parcels of land suggested as comparable to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $1.50 to $2.00 per square foot of land. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The Cook County Board of Review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal," wherein the subject's land assessment of $34,911 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted assessment information for 113 parcels of land suggested as comparable to the subject. The comparables have a land assessment of $4.25 per square foot of land. Also, the board submitted sales pulled from CoStar that range from $5.26 to $17.10 for residential lots within Lemont Township. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's land assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's land assessment as the basis of this appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Walsh v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998) (citing Kankakee Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 131 Ill. 2d 1 (1989)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). To succeed in an appeal based on lack of uniformity, the appellant must submit documentation "showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property." Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 403 Ill. App. 3d 139, 145 (1st Dist. 2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(b). "[T]he critical consideration is not the number of allegedly similar properties, but whether they are in fact 'comparable' to the subject property." Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 403 Ill. App. 3d at 145 (citing DuPage Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 284 Ill. App. 3d 649, 654-55 (2d Dist. 1996)). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds that the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds that Comparables #2, and #4 submitted by the appellant, and Comparables #94, #108, and #109 submitted by the board of review were most similar to the subject's parcel of land in size. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had assessments that ranged from $1.50 to $4.25 per square foot of land area. The subject's land assessment of $4.25 per square foot of land area is within the range established by the most similar comparables.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require a mathematical equality. A practical, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d. 395, 401 (1960). Although the comparables submitted by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence. For the foregoing reasons, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property is inequitably assessed. Therefore, the Board finds that the subject's assessment as established by the board of review is correct and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
