

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ann H. Stucker Declaration of Trust
DOCKET NO.: 07-25699.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-08-100-061-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ann H. Stucker Declaration of Trust, the appellant, by attorney Katherine A. O'Dell of Amari & Locallo in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 19,113
IMPR.: $ 46,147
TOTAL: $ 65,260

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 3,016 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 31 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a two-car attached garage. The subject property is located in Glenview, Niles Township, Cook County.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal report in which a market value of $650,000 was estimated for the subject property as of January 1, 2007. The appraiser developed the sales comparison approach and the cost approach in estimating the market value of the subject property. When the appellant's counsel completed section 2c of the residential appeal form, she requested that the subject's total assessment be reduced to $48,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's the subject's final assessment of $119,244 was disclosed. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,187,689 or $393.80 per square foot of living area, land included, using the 2007 three-year median level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.04% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. The board of review submitted no evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Board finds it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale of the subject property or comparable sales. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c)). Korzen v. Belt Railway Co. of Chicago, 37 Ill.2d 158 (1967). After an analysis of the evidence in the record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the appellant's appraisal report is the best evidence of the subject's market value as of the January 1, 2007 assessment date. The appraiser estimated a market value of $650,000 for the subject property as of January 1, 2007. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,187,689 and is in excess of the market value estimate contained in the appraisal report. The board of review submitted no evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property. Moreover, the board of review failed to address or refute the findings of market value contained in the appellant's appraisal report. Thus, the Board finds the subject has a market value of $650,000 and the 2007 three-year median level of assessments for Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance Class 2 property of 10.04% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.50(c)(2)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
