

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Precision 8304
DOCKET NO.: 07-29566.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-26-402-032-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Precision 8304, the appellant(s), by attorney Aron L. Bornstein, of Law Offices of Aron L. Bornstein in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 5,124
IMPR.: $51,570
TOTAL: $56,694

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property has 4,638 square feet of land, which is improved with a 54 year old, two-story, masonry apartment building, containing five dwelling units and 4,638 square feet of living area. The building has a total of five baths. The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process.

In support of the equity argument, the appellant, via counsel, submitted information on four comparable properties located within one mile of the subject, and described as two-story or three-story, masonry apartment buildings that range in age from 40 to 41 years old, and in size from 4,704 to 7,813 square feet of living area. The buildings all have six dwelling units and six baths. One of the buildings also has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $9.33 to $9.89 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $56,694 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of two-story, masonry apartment buildings located within the subject's neighborhood that range in age from 46 to 55 years old, in dwelling units from four to six, and in size from 4,004 to 5,264 square feet of living area. Two of the comparables have a full unfinished basement, while the other two have a full basement with an apartment. One of the properties has a fireplace, and two have a two-car garage. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $11.29 to $12.73 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $11.12 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds Comparable #1 submitted by the appellant, and Comparables #1, #2, and #3 submitted by the board of review were most similar to the subject in location, size, style, exterior construction, features, and age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $9.32 to $12.73 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $11.12 per square foot of living area is within the range established by the most similar comparables. The remaining comparables submitted by the parties were given diminished weight because of the difference between the subject's improvement size and the comparables' improvement sizes. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
