

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: George Moser
DOCKET NO.: 07-29928.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-11-105-047-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are George Moser, the appellant, by attorney Stephanie Park, of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Rolling Meadows; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 18,603
IMPR.: $ 205,799
TOTAL: $ 224,402

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 155,030 square foot parcel improved with a 26-year-old, two-story, single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 11,972 square feet of living area and located in Barrington Township, Cook County. Features of the residence include four full bathrooms, three half-baths, a partial-unfinished basement, central air-conditioning, four fireplaces and a three-car attached garage.

The appellant, through counsel, appeared before the Property Tax Appeal Board arguing unequal treatment in the assessment process of the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this claim, the appellant submitted assessment data and descriptive information on four properties suggested as comparable to the subject. The appellant also submitted a two-page brief and a copy of the board of review's decision. Based on the appellant's documents, the four suggested comparables consist of two-story, single-family dwellings of frame, masonry or frame and masonry construction located within the subject's neighborhood. The improvements range in size from 8,882 to 15,697 square feet of living area and range in age from seven to 34 years old. The comparables contain from three to five full bathrooms, central air-conditioning, two or three fireplaces and a multi-car attached garage. Three comparables have a full-unfinished basement. The improvement assessments range from $13.62 to $16.12 per square foot of living area.

At hearing, the appellant's attorney argued that the appellant's comparables are similar to the subject in location, design, construction, age and amenities. Based on the evidence submitted, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's total assessment of $228,113. The subject's improvement assessment is $209,510 or $17.50 per square foot of living area. In support of the assessment the board submitted property characteristic printouts and descriptive data on four properties suggested as comparable to the subject. The suggested comparables are improved with one-story or one and one-half story, single-family dwellings of frame or frame and masonry construction with the same neighborhood code as the subject. The improvements range in size from 2,861 to 9,498 square feet of living area and range in age from eight to 19 years old. The comparables contain from two and one-half to six and one-half bathrooms, a finished or unfinished basement, from one to three fireplaces and a multi-car attached garage. Three comparables have central air-conditioning. The improvement assessments range from $18.66 to $29.65 per square foot of living area. Based on the evidence presented, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After hearing the testimony and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The appellant's argument was unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review V. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has overcome this burden.

The Board finds the appellant's comparables one, three and four to be the most similar properties to the subject in the record. These three properties are similar to the subject in size, design, age, amenities and location and have improvement assessments ranging from $13.62 to $16.12 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $17.50 falls above the range established by these properties. However, along with other differences, the Board finds these three comparables differ from the subject in exterior construction. The Board further finds the board of review's comparables less similar to the subject in size, design and/or exterior construction and accorded less weight. After considering adjustments for exterior construction, as well as the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's per square foot improvement assessment is not supported by the most similar properties contained in the record.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant has adequately demonstrated that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
