

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Metro Assoc. Co
DOCKET NO.: 08-01423.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-20-401-018

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Metro Assoc. Co, the appellant(s), by attorney Clyde Hendricks¹ in Peoria; and the Peoria County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Peoria County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 106,750
IMPR.: $ 327,970
TOTAL: $ 434,720

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of one-story commercial building that contains 20,925 square feet of building area. The structure was built in 1989 and is part of a retail strip center.

The appellant appeared before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process based on four suggested comparables. The appellant also argued the subject's assessment was not reflective of its fair market value based solely on the cost approach to value. However, the appellant withdrew the overvaluation aspect of the complaint at hearing without objection.

In support of the inequity argument, the appellant offered a spreadsheet with limited assessment data on three suggested comparables. The analysis was prepared by Vivian Hageman, a property tax consultant, who was present at the hearing and offered testimony with respect to the evidence she prepared. The comparables are located from .01 of a mile to 2.11 miles from the subject. Two comparables are located along the subject's street. The comparables consist of one-story buildings that were built from 1969 to 1991. The buildings range in size from 10,688 to 20,411 square feet of building area. The appellant did not disclose any other descriptive information for the comparables. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $115,520 to $203,630 or from $5.66 to $12.13 per square foot of building area. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $327,970 or $15.67 per square foot of building area.

Hageman testified she placed most reliance on comparables 1 and 2 because they are located across the street from the subject. She explained that the Property Tax Appeal Board reduced the assessments of comparables 1 and 2 through stipulations by the parties. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $434,720 was disclosed.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted an assessment analysis of five suggested comparables located from ¼ of a mile to 3 miles from the subject. The comparables consist of a part one and part one and one-half story and four, one one-story buildings that were built from 1983 to 1997. The board of review did not disclose the comparables' exterior construction types. The buildings range in size from 14,460 to 27,600 square feet of building area and have improvement assessments ranging from $206,470 to $540,850 or from $13.70 to $19.60 per square foot of building area. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $327,970 or $15.67 per square foot of building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Under rebuttal, Hageman offered photographs of the subject and both parties' comparables. Hageman argued the board of review's comparable 1 is a part one and part one and one-half story building with an elevator, unlike the subject.

After hearing the testimony and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Property Tax Appeal Board further finds a reduction in the subject property's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant argued unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not overcome this burden of proof.

The parties presented descriptions and assessment data for eight suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board accords diminished weight to the comparables submitted by the appellant. One comparable is considerably smaller in size and two comparables are considerably older when compared to the subject. The Board also gave less weight to board of review comparables 1, 2, and 4. Comparable 1 is dissimilar in design when compared to the subject; comparable 2 is newer in when compared to the subject; and comparable 4 is larger when compared to the subject.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds comparables 3 and 5 submitted by the board of review are more similar when compared to the subject in age, style, size and location. They have improvement assessments of $206,470 and $379,400 or $13.70 and $16.21 per square foot of building area. After considering adjustments to the comparables for any differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment of $327,970 or $15.67 per square foot of building area is supported. As a result, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant failed to demonstrate the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed and no reduction is warranted

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the appellant disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence. For the foregoing reasons, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property is inequitably assessed. Therefore, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the subject's assessment as established by the board of review is correct and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
