

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Lawrence Michlovich
DOCKET NO.: 08-22181.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 23-24-300-322-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Lawrence Michlovich, the appellant, by attorney Timothy C. Jacobs, of Gary H. Smith PC in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,198
IMPR.: $ 32,976
TOTAL: $ 36,174

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story townhouse of frame and masonry construction. The dwelling is 12 years old and contains 2,396 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car attached garage. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 residential property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance and is located in Palos Heights, Palos Township, Cook County.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on four suggested comparable properties described as frame and masonry townhouses. The comparables have the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject, and they are all located in the same block as the subject property. The comparable dwellings are from 12 to 16 years old and contain from 2,309 to 2,396 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car attached garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $28,321 to $30,109 or $11.91 to $13.04 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $32,976 or $13.76 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $29,791 or $12.43 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $36,174 was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of two-story frame and masonry townhouses. The comparables have the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject, and three comparables are located in the same block as the subject property. The dwellings are either 12 or 17 years old and they contain from 2,200 to 2,396 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car attached garage. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $31,010 to $32,949 or $13.68 to $14.22 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

Both parties presented assessment data on a total of eight suggested comparables. The subject property and the eight comparables were frame and masonry townhouses that were all located in the same development. Additionally, they were all generally similar in age and size. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $28,321 to $32,949 or $11.91 to $14.22 per square foot of living area. Although the subject's improvement assessment of $32,976 is higher than any of the suggested comparables, the subject's improvement assessment of $13.76 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the eight suggested comparables on a per square foot basis. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction on the basis of assessment inequity is not warranted.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the appellant disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence. For the foregoing reasons, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property is inequitably assessed. Therefore, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the subject's assessment as established by the board of review is correct and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
