

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Andrew Kulick
DOCKET NO.: 08-23517.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-28-410-062-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Andrew Kulick, the appellant, by attorney Arnold G. Siegel, of Siegel & Callahan, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 29,304
IMPR.: $ 62,280
TOTAL: $ 91,584

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject has 11,100 square feet of land, which is improved with a 121 year old, two-story, stucco, single-family dwelling. The subject's improvement size is 2,564 square feet of living area, and its total assessment is $91,584. This assessment yields a fair market value of $954,000, or $372.07 per square foot of living area (including land), after applying the 2008 Illinois Department of Revenue three year median level of assessment for Class 2 properties of 9.60%. The appellant, via counsel, argued that the fair market value of the subject property was not accurately reflected in its assessed value as the basis of this appeal.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted a residential appraisal report for the subject property with an effective date of January 1, 2009. The appraiser estimated a fair market value for the subject of $700,000 based on the sales comparison approach to value. The appraiser also conducted an inspection of the subject. The appraisal also stated that the subject property had not sold within the past three years. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The Cook County Board of Review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal," wherein the subject's total assessment of $91,584 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment information for four properties suggested as comparable to the subject. The comparables are described as two-story, stucco, single-family dwellings. Additionally, the comparables range: in age from 96 to 109 years; in size from 2,369 to 2,749 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessments from $26.71 to $33.08 per square foot of living area. The comparables also have several amenities. The board of review's grid sheet also states that the subject sold in October 2006 for $997,500, or $389.04 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's sale date and price were acknowledged by the appellant within the board of review's evidence. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

When overvaluation is claimed, the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 339 Ill. App. 3d 529, 545 (1st Dist. 2002); National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 331 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1042 (3d Dist. 2002) (citing Winnebago Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 179 (2d Dist. 2000)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. Calumet Transfer, LLC v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 401 Ill. App. 3d 652, 655 (1st Dist. 2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(c). Having considered the evidence presented, the Board finds that the evidence indicates a reduction is not warranted.

In determining the fair market value of the subject property, the Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the undisputed and un rebutted sale of the subject in October 2006 for $997,500. The Board finds that the appraisal did not acknowledge the sale date and price of the subject. Additionally, in the board of review's evidence the appellant acknowledges this sale, which is close in time to the January 1, 2008 lien date. As such, the Board finds that the subject's sale should be considered in properly determining the subject's market value. For these reasons, the Board finds that a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
