

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Scott Erickson
DOCKET NO.: 08-26077.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-17-404-018-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Scott Erickson, the appellant(s), by attorney Howard W. Melton, of Howard W. Melton and Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 42,324
IMPR: $ 0
TOTAL: $ 42,324

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 40,502 square foot parcel of land with no improvements, which is located in Hanover Township in Cook County. The subject's land assessment is $1.04 per square foot of land.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on four comparable properties that range in size from 40,388 to 43,146 square feet of land area. The comparables have land assessments of $0.36 per square foot of land area, and all of the comparables have improvements. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's land assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $42,324 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment data for six properties that are all vacant land. These properties have from 10,031 to 53,840 square feet of land, and land assessments of $1.04 per square foot of land. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment. After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of this appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Walsh v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998) (citing Kankakee Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 131 Ill. 2d 1 (1989)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). To succeed in an appeal based on lack of uniformity, the appellant must submit documentation "showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property." Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 403 Ill. App. 3d 139, 145 (1st Dist. 2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(b). "[T]he critical consideration is not the number of allegedly similar properties, but whether they are in fact 'comparable' to the subject property." Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 403 Ill. App. 3d at 145 (citing Du Page Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 284 Ill. App. 3d 649, 654-55 (2d Dist. 1996)). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds that the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds that all of the comparables submitted by the board of review were most similar to the subject in location and size. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables all had land assessments of $1.04 per square foot of land. The subject's land assessment of $1.04 per square foot of land is within the range established by the most similar comparables. Therefore, after considering adjustments and differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds that the subject's land assessment is equitable, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
