

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Adrianos Development
DOCKET NO.: 08-26440.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-13-328-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Adrianos Development, the appellant(s), by attorney Brian P. Liston, of Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,024
IMPR.: $ 37,600
TOTAL: $ 40,624

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2008 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a three-story dwelling of masonry construction with 3,693 square feet of living area. The dwelling is one year old. The property has a 3,150 square foot site, and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-97 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on one equity comparable.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $40,624. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $37,600, or $10.18 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on one equity comparable. The board of review's comparable and the appellant's comparable are the same property.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b).

The Board finds that appellant's comparable #1 and board of review comparable #1 are the same property and are similar to the subject. The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require a mathematical equality. A practical, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill2d. 395 (1960). Although the comparable presented by the parties disclosed that a property located in the same area is not assessed at a level identical to the subject, all the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

As there is only one comparable in the record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
