

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rosemary Brown
DOCKET NO.: 09-21063.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 28-23-301-032-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rosemary Brown, the appellant(s), by attorney Julie Realmuto, of McCarthy Duffy in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 954
IMPR.: $ 20,637
TOTAL: $ 21,591

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of 6,360 square feet of land, which is improved with a four year old, two-story, frame dwelling containing 2,139 square feet of living area. The dwelling's amenities include two full and one half baths, a partial, unfinished basement, air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car garage.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. In support of this equity argument, the appellant submitted information on three comparable properties. These properties all contain two-story dwellings of frame construction that range: in age from 3 to 51 years old; in size from 2,172 to 2,336 square feet of living area. Additionally, one of the properties contains a fireplace, air conditioning, and a partial basement. The appellant did not include any data concerning garages for the comparables. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $6.23 to $7.45 per square foot of living area, while the subject's improvement assessment is $9.65 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $21,591 was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on two comparable properties. Both properties contain two-story, frame dwellings that are four years old and have 2,139 square feet of living area. The amenities on both properties include two and one-half baths, a partial, unfinished basement, a fireplace, and a two-car garage. One dwelling also has air conditioning. These properties' improvement assessments range from $9.92 and $10.27 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board finds the comparables submitted by the board of review, and comparable property number two submitted by the appellant were most similar to the subject in location, size, style, exterior construction, features, and age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $7.12 to $10.27 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $9.65 per square foot of living area is within the range established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
