

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Robert Bosco
DOCKET NO.: 09-23444.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-22-412-024-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Robert Bosco, the appellant, by attorney Edward P. Larkin, of Edward P. Larkin, Attorney at Law in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 7,980
IMPR.: $48,674
TOTAL: $56,654

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is 30 years old, and consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 3,228 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The subject property has a 9,975 square foot site, is located in Maine Township, Cook County and is classified as a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three suggested equity comparables. The appellant submitted a brief in which he argues the subject contains 2,776 square feet of living area, not 3,228 as suggested by the board of review, because the second floor is not as large as the first floor. Attached to the brief is an illegible plat of survey which the appellant purports reveals the elevations of the improvement and the correct square footage of 2,776. Also attached to the appellant's brief is a photograph of the subject. This photograph shows what appears to be the front façade of the improvement without sufficient views to determine the entirety of the elevations. Consequently, the Property Tax Appeal Board does not give any weight to evidence submitted by appellant as to square footage of the improvement, and accepts the board of review's suggested square footage of 3,228 as accurate. The appellant also proffered a one-page brief as rebuttal evidence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $56,654. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $48,674 or $15.08 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparable #1, and board of review's comparables #1 and #2. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14.84 to $17.82 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $15.08 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
