

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Streicker
DOCKET NO.: 09-26642.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-29-103-039-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Streicker, the appellant, by attorney Leonard Schiller, of Schiller Klein PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $56,135
IMPR.: $156,016
TOTAL: $212,151

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 4,992 square feet of living area. The dwelling was 44 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a three-car attached garage. The property has a 43,181 square foot site and is located in Winnetka, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $227,833. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $171,698 or $34.39 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The parties to the appeal submitted a total of seven comparable properties into the record for the Board's consideration. Six of the seven comparables have a tight range of per square foot of living area assessment. The seventh comparable, board of review #4, has an improvement assessment of $256,516 which is 33% higher and $19.36 per square foot of living area higher than the board of review's next highest comparable. The Board finds this property's high valuation and assessment calls into question its comparability to not only the subject property but the other comparables in the record. Thus, the Board gave board of review comparable #4 less weight in its final analysis. The Board finds the remaining six comparables in the record are the best evidence of assessment equity. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $29.76 to $33.31 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $34.39 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
