

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Janis Bryson
DOCKET NO.: 09-28662.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-18-113-035-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Janis Bryson, the appellant, by attorney Christopher G. Walsh, Jr. in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 11,849
IMPR.: $ 15,394
TOTAL: $ 27,243

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject has 3,485 square feet of land that is improved with a six year old, two-story, frame, single-family dwelling. The subject's improvement size is 1,482 square feet of living area, and its total assessment is $27,243. This assessment yields a fair market value of $306,101, or $206.55 per square foot of living area (including land), after applying the 2009 Illinois Department of Revenue three year median level of assessment for Class 2 properties of 8.90%. The appellant, via counsel, argued that the fair market value of the subject property was not accurately reflected in its assessed value as the basis of this appeal.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted evidence showing that the subject sold in November 2006 for $183,411. This evidence included a settlement statement and an Illinois Real Estate Transfer Tax Declaration. Furthermore, the appellant's pleadings are incomplete as Section IV of the Property Tax Appeal Board petition did not disclose the circumstances surrounding the sale. The Transfer Tax Declaration indicates the sale closed in 2006 but it was in fulfillment of a 2004 contract. The documents also indicate no real estate brokers were involved in the transaction. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The Cook County Board of Review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal," wherein the subject's total assessment of $27,243 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment information for four properties suggested as comparable to the subject. The comparables are described as two-story, frame or frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. Additionally, the comparables range: in age from 10 to 12 years; in size from 1,537 to 1,712 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessments from $6.05 to $15.04 per square foot of living area. The comparables also have several amenities. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

When overvaluation is claimed, the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 339 Ill. App. 3d 529, 545 (1st Dist. 2002); National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 331 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1042 (3d Dist. 2002) (citing Winnebago Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 179 (2d Dist. 2000)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. Calumet Transfer, LLC v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 401 Ill. App. 3d 652, 655 (1st Dist. 2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(c). Having considered the evidence presented, the Board finds that the evidence indicates a reduction is not warranted.

The Board finds that the appellant failed to disclose all of the facts surrounding the sale, as Section IV of the Property Tax Appeal Board petition was incomplete. Additionally, the Real Estate Transfer Tax Declaration form indicates the price paid for the subject was negotiated in 2004, approximately five years prior to the January 1, 2009 lien date. The documents also reflect the fact that no real estate brokers were involved in the transaction and it is unclear whether the subject was listed on the open market. As the appellant failed to provide detailed information to substantiate the arm's-length nature of this transaction, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the appellant has not proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject is overvalued based on the evidence contained in the record.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
