

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Sokolowski 1426
DOCKET NO.: 09-28974.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-05-315-032-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Sokolowski 1426, the appellant(s), by attorney Aron L. Bornstein, of Law Offices of Aron L. Bornstein in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 10,795
IMPR.: $ 78,795
TOTAL: $ 89,590

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of two improvements. Improvement #1 is a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,886 square feet of living area. Improvement #1 is 123 years old. Features of Improvement #1 include two baths, a full unfinished basement, and central air conditioning. Improvement #2 is a three-story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,173 square feet of living area. Improvement #2 is 123 years old. Features of Improvement #2 include three full and three half baths, a full unfinished basement, and central air conditioning. The property has a 3,175 square foot site, and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $615,000 as of January 1, 2009.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $89,590. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,006,629, or $166.14 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the 2009 three year average median level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 8.90% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables for Improvement #1, and three equity comparables for Improvement #2.

At hearing, counsel for the appellant reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted. The board of review analyst argued that the appraiser was not present, did not testify, and was unavailable for cross-examination, and therefore, the appraisal should be dismissed as hearsay evidence. The board of review analyst further argued that the adjustments made by the appraiser were minimal, and that the appraised value combined the two improvements, which, it was argued, is not the typical way properties with two improvements are appraised. In rebuttal, counsel for the appellant argued that the appellant's argument is based on market value, and that the only evidence of market value in the record is the appraisal submitted by the appellant.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board does not find the appraisal submitted by the appellant persuasive. At hearing, the board of review analyst argued that the appraisal was hearsay evidence because the appraiser was not available to testify. The Board finds this to be the case. For proceedings before the Board, "[t]he procedure, to the extent that the Board considers practicable, shall eliminate formal rules of pleading, practice and evidence, . . ." 35 ILCS 200/16-180. However, in Novicki v. Department of Finance, 373 Ill.342, 26 N.E.2d 130 (1940), the Supreme Court of Illinois stated, "[t]he rule against hearsay evidence, that a witness may testify only as to facts within his personal knowledge and not as to what someone else told him, is founded on the necessity of an opportunity for cross-examination, and is basic and not a technical rule of evidence." Novicki, 373 Ill. at 344. Thus, while the Board's rules allow for informal rules of evidence, the Board cannot abrogate a basic rule of evidence under the Supreme Court's holding in Novicki. Therefore, the Board finds that the appraisal is hearsay evidence for which no exception exists, and that the appraisal shall not be considered as relevant evidence in this appeal. Since there is no other evidence of market value in the record, the Board finds that a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
