PARCEL NO.: 04-01-409-035-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Paul Fox, the appellant, by attorney Glenn S. Guttman of Rieff Schramm Kanter & Guttman in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,652
IMPR: $124,067
TOTAL: $138,719

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately two years old and has 3,618 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full finished basement, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and a two-car garage. The property has a 13,630 square foot site and is located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

When completing section 2d of the residential appeal form, the appellant checked the box indicating the appeal was being based on comparable sales. The appellant submitted assessment equity evidence instead of comparable sales. In support of the inequity argument, the appellant submitted information on eight equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $138,719. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $124,067 or $34.29 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on one equity comparable.

The appellant's attorney submitted a rebuttal brief.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the comparable submitted by the board of review. This comparable was most similar to the subject in age and was also very similar in design, exterior construction, living area, and features. All of the appellant's comparables were substantially older than the subject property and received little weight in the Board's analysis. Board of review comparable #1 had an improvement assessment of $41.43 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $34.29 per square foot of living area is supported by the improvement assessment of the best comparable in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
