

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Frank Bednarek
DOCKET NO.: 09-32674.001-I-1
PARCEL NO.: 32-34-101-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Frank Bednarek, the appellant(s), by attorney John M. Brannigan, of Maher and Brannigan in Flossmoor; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $18,676
IMPR.: $23,324
TOTAL: $42,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject matter of this appeal consist of a Class 5-93 industrial property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance (hereinafter Ordinance). The subject parcel contains 149,111 square feet of land area that is improved with a 3,520 square foot metal pole building. Under the real property classification system employed by Cook County, Major Class 5B-Industrial property is to be assessed at 25% of fair cash value under the Ordinance. The subject property is located in Bloom Township, Cook County.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming the subject's assessment was not reflective of its fair market value. In support of this claim, the appellant submitted an appraisal report wherein the subject property was estimated to have a fair market value of $168,000 as of January 1, 2008.

The appellant also submitted the final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review wherein the subject property's final assessment of $70,138 was disclosed. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $280,552 using the Ordinance level of assessment for Class 5B property of 25%.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessed valuation.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a)).

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Property Tax Appeal Board further finds a reduction in the assessment of the subject property is warranted.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessment. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). The Board finds the appellant has met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant argued the subject's assessment was not reflective of its fair market value based on an appraisal report, wherein the subject property was estimated to have a fair market value of $168,000 as of January 1, 2008. The board of review did not submit any valuation evidence to support its assessment of the subject property or refute the value conclusion contained in the appellant's evidence as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a)). Thus, the board of review was found to be in default. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a)). The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $280,552, which is considerably greater than the appraisal submitted by the appellant. Therefore, a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted. Since fair market value has been established, Cook County's 2009 Ordinance level of assessment for Class 5B property of 25% shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(3)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
