

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Timothy Ramseyer
DOCKET NO.: 10-02203.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-12-226-003

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Timothy Ramseyer, the appellant, by attorney Ronald M. Justin, of RMR Property Tax Solutions, in Hawthorn Woods, and the Kane County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Kane County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,787
IMPR: $6,889
TOTAL: $11,676

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property<sup>1</sup> is improved with a one-story dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling contains approximately 679 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1923. Features of the home include a partial basement and an attached 270 square foot garage. The property is located in Elgin, Elgin Township, Kane County.

The appellant appeared before the Property Tax Appeal Board through legal counsel contending the subject property was overvalued in light of its recent sale. In support of this market value argument, the appellant's counsel filed a brief citing various Illinois cases along with evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on November 5, 2009 for a price of $35,000. The appellant completed Section IV - Recent Sale Data of the appeal petition disclosing the parties to the transaction were not related and the property was sold using a Realtor firm of Realty World with agent Kenneth Huffar. Furthermore, the property had been advertised on the open market with the Multiple Listing Service for 64 days prior to its sale. At hearing, counsel further reported that both the buyer and seller were represented by real estate agents at the time of the transaction.

No witness was presented by the appellant to testify as to the purchase process, negotiations and/or the condition of the subject property at the time of purchase.

In further support of the transaction, the appellant submitted a copy of the Multiple Listing Service sheet which depicted an original asking price of $49,500 and a listing date of August 7, 2009 and a subsequent price reduction to $44,500 prior to its sale. Among the remarks on the document is the statement, **CASH DEAL ONLY****.

Based on this evidence and applicable case law, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review - Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's total assessment of $33,947 was disclosed. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $101,760 or $149.87 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the 2010 three year average median level of assessment for Kane County of 33.36% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(1)).

The board of review representative Kevin Schulenburg contended that one sale price is not indicative of market value. This property was a foreclosure/REO sale. Given that this was a "cash deal only" there is also an assumption that there may have been condition issues in conjunction with that requirement. Based upon the circumstances of the sale, [the board of review] does not feel that one sale makes a market value based on other sales evidence in the record.

In support of the subject's estimated market value as reflected by its assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame exterior construction. Dwelling sizes range from 672 to 788 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built between 1903 and 1935. Each of the comparables has a basement, one of which includes finished area. Two of the comparables have central air conditioning and one comparable has a fireplace. Three of the properties have a garage ranging in size from 352 to 440 square feet of building area. The properties sold from April 2007 to October 2009 for prices ranging from $105,000 to $160,000 or from $156.25 to $204.60 per square foot of living area, including land.

At hearing, the board of review called Steven Surnicki, the Elgin Township Assessor, for testimony. He noted that the purchase of the subject property was a "cash" sale and was advertised as being sold only for cash. Due to the type of sale, the assessor opined that this limits the amount of potential buyers for the subject property. He further noted that the comparable sales presented were located on the north end of Elgin in the subject's immediate area and sold for substantially more than the subject.

The board of review did not specifically address nor challenge the subject's sale price.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's estimated market value as reflected by its assessment.

After hearing the testimony and considering the record, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. Except in counties with more than 200,000 inhabitants that classify property, property is to be valued at 33 1/3% of fair cash value. (35 ILCS 200/9-145(a)). Fair cash value is defined in the Property Tax Code as "[t]he amount for which a property can be sold in the due course of business and trade, not under duress, between a willing buyer and a willing seller." (35 ILCS 200/1-50). The Supreme Court of Illinois has construed "fair cash value" to mean what the property would bring at a voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is ready, willing, and able to buy but not forced to do so. Springfield Marine Bank v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 44 Ill.2d 428 (1970). A contemporaneous sale between two parties dealing at arm's length is not only relevant to the question of fair cash value but practically conclusive on the issue on whether the assessment is reflective of market value. Korzen v. Belt Railway Co. of Chicago, 37 Ill.2d 158 (1967). When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property on November 5, 2009 for a price of $35,000, approximately 2 months prior to the assessment date of January 1, 2010. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had the elements of an arm's-length transaction. The subject was advertised for sale and the buyer and seller were not related parties. The board of review failed to adequately rebut the apparent arm's-length nature of the transaction.

Additionally, the Board finds the purchase price of $35,000 is below the market value reflected by the assessment of $101,760. Moreover, the original listing price of $49,500 for the subject property at the time of marketing in August 2009 was also less than the estimated market value as reflected by its 2010 assessment. Furthermore, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the board of review did not present any substantive evidence to challenge the arm's-length nature of the transaction or to refute the contention that the purchase price was reflective of market value. The Board gave less weight to the comparables submitted by the board of review finding that they do not refute the arm's-length sale price evidence presented by the appellant.

Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued. The best evidence in the record is that the subject property had a market value of $35,000 as of January 1, 2010. Since market value has been determined the 2010 three year average median level of assessment for Kane County of 33.36% shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(1)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
