

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jason Welch
DOCKET NO.: 10-02553.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 07-12-423-005

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jason Welch, the appellant, by attorney Daniel R. Fusco, of Rock, Fusco & Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the DuPage County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the DuPage County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $62,340
IMPR.: $30,730
TOTAL: $93,070

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a 1.5 story single family dwelling that contains 1,248 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 62 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning and a one-car garage. The property is located in Naperville, Naperville Township, DuPage County.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process regarding the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. The evidentiary documentation to support the lack of uniformity claim consists of three suggested comparables. The comparables had varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,900 to $32,010 or from $22.30 to $27.43 per square foot of living area. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $37,580 or $30.11 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review did not timely submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" and evidence in support of the assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant claims unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has overcome this burden.

The appellant presented assessment data on a total of three equity comparables that were similar to the subject in design, size and most features. The Board finds the comparables are generally similar to the subject property in most respects. They had improvement assessments ranging from $22.30 to $27.43 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $30.11 per square foot of living area is greater than these most similar comparables. Therefore, the Board finds the subject's per square foot improvement assessment is not supported by the most comparable properties contained in this record and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted. The board of review did not timely submit evidence in support of the assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.40(a) & 1910.69(a)).

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant has adequately demonstrated that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
