

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rich Cline
DOCKET NO.: 10-02692.001-R-2
PARCEL NO.: 05-30-212-004

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rich Cline, the appellant, by attorney Joanne Elliott of Elliott & Associates, P.C., Des Plaines; and the DuPage County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the DuPage County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $120,980
IMPR.: $245,650
TOTAL: $366,630

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject appeal consists of a two-story frame dwelling containing 4,913 square feet of living area that was built in 1999. Features include a full basement that is partially finished, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and three-car attached garage. The subject property has approximately 34,586 square feet of land area and is located in Milton Township, DuPage County, Illinois.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming the subject's assessment is not reflective of fair market value. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating a fair market value for the subject property of $1,100,000 as of January 1, 2010. The appellant also submitted the DuPage County Board of Review's final decision regarding the subject property. The subject property has a total assessment of $476,460, which reflects an estimated market value of $1,429,523 when applying the statutory level of assessments. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessed valuation.

The board of review did not timely submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.40(a)). By letter dated September 21, 2012, the DuPage County Board of Review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.69(a)).

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant in this appeal submitted an appraisal to demonstrate the subject property's assessment was not reflective of fair market value. The appraisal conveyed an estimated market value of $1,100,000 as of January 1, 2010. The subject property has a total assessment of $476,460, which reflects an estimated market value of $1,429,523. The board of review did not timely submit evidence in support of the assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.40(a) & 1910.69(a)). The Board has examined the evidence and finds that it supports a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property commensurate with the appellant's request.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
